WALKER MISKELLY WINS HORSESHOE TUNICA MONSTER STACK

He collects his first Circuit ring and $43,209

Walker Miskelly triumphantly conquered the Horseshoe Tunica Monster Stack on Thursday night, claiming his first Circuit ring and $43,209, the first five figure score of his WSOP resume.

Day 2 saw 38 players returning to the felt out of 738 entrants. The eliminations were going at a fast pace at the beginning of the day but once the unofficial final table was reached, action slowed considerably, and play remained ten-handed for a few hours before the next bustout.

Miskelly came into the final table near the top of the leaderboard but he suffered significant setbacks early, dropping in rank. However, he remained patient and picked his spot to start his climb back.

"I'm super excited. Right when we got to the final table, I came in second in chips and I went 0 for 2 on the first two flips. I went down to about 13 big blinds at one point, then I doubled with aces against queens and I just didn't really look back from there," Miskelly commented.

Miskelly also had a big chip disadvantage coming into heads-up play but he managed to turn things around when he four-bet shoved with kings and got called by Jesse Greer who had ace-seven, and held.

“When I came into heads-up play, I only had 5 million to his 17 million. I had a lot of work to do there, but I knew I had to be the aggressor and keep applying pressure.”

In the final hand of the night, Greer was all in with ace-ten suited against Miskelly who was ahead with jacks. The flop gave Greer a flush draw but he couldn't get there, and Miskelly claimed his first Circuit title.
